Brews & Clues

Halloween-Themed Murder Mystery Dinner Theater at the Blazin' M Ranch

Cottonwood, AZ – Grab your favorite guys and ghouls and join us this Halloween season! Enjoy the sleuthing, spirituous atmosphere and side-splitting comedy when the Blazin' M Ranch, a local favorite entertainment venue, presents their third in a series of themed Murder Mystery Dinner Shows for 2013, "Brews & Clues" on Sunday, October 20th. This Halloween themed evening event will feature Blazin' M's signature BBQ ribs and chicken with all the fixins' for dinner. A complimentary wine tasting provided by Arizona Stronghold, along with a beer tasting featuring brews by Mother Road Brewing Co., will be available prior to dinner. Unique to this particular Murder Mystery event and true to the Halloween theme, a costume contest will also be held. Guests are invited (but by no means required) to come in costume. Local VIP's will serve as judges and cash prizes will be awarded.

Five of Sedona and the Verde Valley's most acclaimed actors, singers and musicians return to the Blazin' M stage for this one night production. Dev Ross, an actress, singer and a former writer for Disney, is currently writing morning shows for Mattel and working on scripts for Fox Searchlight and a subsidiary of Lionsgate. Mike Gilbert is best known and loved in the Verde Valley as a talented, composer, guitarist, singer and sound designer. Tom & Shondra have entertained audiences with their own shows across the U.S. and continue to be local favorites performing in a variety of venues. Audiences have enjoyed Brad Robert's performances in acting and singing roles in venues around the Verde Valley including Canyon Moon Theatre.

This talented troupe will come together again portraying some sassy and spooky characters including, has-been talk-show host Batrina, mad scientist Dr. Frankenfarther, TV Producer Hector, Morbido, Vampira and even some unsuspecting audience members who could be questioned as suspects! During the Guilty Pleasures dessert service guests will be asked to vote for who they believe the culprit is. Total prizes valued at over $2000 will be awarded to the persons drawn from those who correctly guess the "whodunnit?" including a VIP Helicopter Tour and Blazin' M Ranch combo with Arizona Helicopter Adventures, Phoenix Suns tickets from Yavapai Broadcasting and more!

A special "Menu for Murder" outlining the evening's itinerary will be provided upon check-in at 5:00PM, when the clue gathering begins. While enjoying the tractor pull, museum, shooting gallery, gift shops, wine and beer tasting and other libations in the Copper Spur Saloon and the Spirited Stirrup, attendees will hone their detective skills as they watch for clues to unfold during these pre-dinner activities and attractions. When the dinner bell rings at 6:15PM, guests will enter the dining queue and "witness" some interactive scenes that provide clues to help them guess the cold-blooded culprit of the night...the suspense continues until 8:30PM.
